COAL AVENUE AND SECOND STREET

HOW JOE MULHATTON

POINTED A MORAL

RELATED INFORMATION CONCERNING HIM, COMES TO PHOENIX.

There was received at the Phoenix Republican office a communication from John S. Cochran, of Pinal county, in relation to John Mulhatten, for whom inquiry had been made in that paper by his brother. It has been mentioned that the morning following that inquiry Joe Mulhatten curiously arrived in the city from the coast, and met his brother, whom he had not seen for eight years, and who feared that he was dead. The fact of the appearance of Joe Mulhatten was not known to Mr. Cochran at the time of the writing of the letter. He therefore gave what information he had concerning him and enclosed an editorial from the San Francisco Examiner of a year ago last November. The editorial is reproduced for the general lesson it conveys, though it is no doubt exaggerated the condition of Mr. Mulhatten at that time, and is certainly not descriptive of his present condition, since he is by no means "all in." The editorial follows:

"Ten years ago Joe Mulhatten was one of the most prosperous and successful traveling salesman in the country. He received a salary of $15,000 a year with an expense account almost as large.

"Then years ago this man set the styles. He was wearing a Bear Brand, and his 'glad clothes' were up to date. When on the road he lived like a prince. No parlor car or high priced hotel was too good for him.

"Today he is a physical wreck, bloated, bleary-eyed, nerve-shattered, he is scarcely able to tell his name.

"Ten years ago Joe Mulhatten was the best raconteur in the country. His stories—the inventions of an ingenious mind and ready wit—were printed in all the newspapers, and some of them are still going the rounds of the press. He was proud of the title, 'Biggest liar on earth.' His stories set the whole country laughing.

"In a few weeks, at best, Joe Mulhatten will die. And some dissecting student may take that skull in his hands and say, 'Aha, poor York!'

"What brought about the change in Mulhatten?

"Whiskey.

"He was a type of the 'good fellow.' To be this sort of a good fellow, you must do as the other fellows do. If not more so. Mulhatten went the limit. He was the life of every party. Generous to a fault, he never turned down a friend—and he had a lot of friends those days. He has no friends now.

"His is the old story of trying to conquer booze.

"To keep up his end in the drinking bouts, he swilled the stuff. It got on to his nerves and jangled them. Then it tackled his stomach and ate out the linings.

"As the whiskey was going in his wit went out. He began to forget the point of a story, and mumbled it. His speech interfered with his business. His friends began to say that Joe's pace was too rapid. Then he lost his $15,000 position. He could not make good. Engaged at a low salary, he tried to quit drinking and to redeem himself. He took the cure.

THE HEAVIEST SNOW

IN MANY YEARS

EIGHT INCHES AT SOCORRO AND FEET OF THE BEAUTIFUL ON SAN FRANCISCO MOUNTAINS.

The heaviest snow in years spread itself over central New Mexico and Arizona Thursday and that night. Dr. Chas. R. Keyes, president of the New Mexico School of Mines at Socorro, who arrived from that place yesterday morning says that eight inches of the beautiful covered the ground there and that the snow was still falling when he left at midnight. Passengers from farther south say that there was a great fall of snow as far south as Engle. Passengers on trains arriving from the west tell of snow from Kingman, Arizona, to the Rio Grande valley, the fall ranging from a great depth on the mountains to a light fall in the valleys. General Superintendent I. R. Hilbard, of the Santa Fe coast lines, who was in the city on Thursday, said that he had been advised that Superintendent Gibson of the Winslow division, had found it necessary to put snow plows at work on the San Francisco mountains to keep traffic open.

in Mad Chase.

Millions rush in mad chase after health, from one extreme of faddism to another, when, if they would only eat good food and keep their bowels regular with Dr. King's New Life Pills, their troubles would all pass away. Prompt relief and quick cure for liver and stomach trouble; 25c at any drug store; guaranteed.

The holiday rates will be one and one-third fare to all points via the Santa Fe route. Call at the ticket office and get particulars.

Two Dyspeptics

If you are too fat it is because your food turns to fat instead of muscle—strength. If you are too lean the fat producing foods that you eat are not properly digested and assimilated.

Lean, thin, stringy people do not have enough Pepsin in the stomach, while fat people have too much Pepsin and not enough Pancreatic.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

contains all the digestive juices that are found in a healthy stomach, and in exactly those proportions necessary to enable the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all foods that may be eaten. Kodol is not only a perfect digestant, but it is a reconstructive, tissue building tonic as well. Kodol cures indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Palpitation of the Heart and Constipation. You will like it.

Digests What You Eat

Rests the stomach, rebuilds the tissues and gives firm flesh.

Bottle holds 4 oz. of the purest Kodol. For sale by all druggists.
